

Archived Information

A NATIONAL DIALOGUE:

The Secretary of Education's Commission on the Future of Higher Education

PRESENTER BIOGRAPHY

Anne Neal

President

American Council of Trustees and Alumni

Dr. Anne D. Neal is President of the American Council of Trustees and Alumni and editor of the quarterly newsletter, Inside Academe. She is a Phi Beta Kappa, magna cum laude graduate of Harvard College where she majored in American history and literature. She graduated from Harvard Law School in 1980 and was President of the Harvard Journal on Legislation. Dr. Neal has served as General Counsel of the National Endowment for the Humanities and as a First Amendment and communications lawyer with Rogers & Wells and Wiley, Rein & Fielding. She is a contributor to the Handbook of American Women's History (Sage Publications 2000) and served as co-editor of Communications Lawyer, a publication of the American Bar Association. In June 2003, Dr. Neal's article on the Olmsted Woods restoration appeared in Ecological Restoration, a publication of the University of Wisconsin.

Dr. Neal is a member of the Trade and Environment Policy Advisory Committee for the United States Trade Representative. She has been a trustee of numerous boards including All Hallows Guild, Washington National Cathedral; Sabre Foundation; the National Association for Olmsted Parks, and Friends of the National Arboretum. She is a member of the Founder's Committee for Historic Mount Vernon and former member of the U.S. Fulbright Advisory Board.