Executive Summary

- In FY 2008, the nation's 105 historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs) received $3,964,987,750 in grants, student loans, and other allocations from 31 participating federal departments and agencies, mostly across six major funding categories (Table 2).
- Scholarships and tuition assistance for students accounted for the largest portion of this support at $2,633,904,026.

Introduction

As per Executive Order 13256, signed on February 12, 2002 (see Appendix A), the President's Board of Advisors on Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) "shall prepare and issue an annual report to the President on the results of the participation of historically black colleges and universities in Federal programs."

- The following report describes the support that the nation's 105 HBCUs received from the 31 participating federal departments and agencies during FY 2008.
- During FY 2008, approximately 12 percent of all African American college students were enrolled at HBCUs.

Methodology

As per Section 6 of Executive Order 13256, the 31 participating departments and agencies are required on an annual basis to provide the White House Initiative on HBCUs (WHI-HBCU) with data that identifies the funds they provided to HBCUs during the previous fiscal year.

Most of the tables in this report contain three kinds of data: 1) funds provided to all institutions of higher education (IHEs), 2) funds provided to HBCUs, and 3) the percentage of IHE funds awarded to HBCUs.

Although the WHI-HBCU received most of the requested funding data that is necessary to compile this report, some of the data was not accounted for among some of the participating agencies and departments. This unaccounted information is due to an agency either failing to submit its report altogether or not specifically disclosing its awards in accordance to the established funding categories. As a result, missing entries in the tables are designated as "n/a" – as in "not available."

The missing data elements did not significantly impact this report for two reasons: 1) most of the support across the major funding categories was provided by only a few departments and agencies and 2) the major funders provided the requested data elements.

Where the last row in a table represents the sum of all of the data in its respective column, missing data will generate an estimated sum that is lower than the real sum. However, given the predominant support from the major funding agencies and departments, the missing data from those contributing smaller amounts will generate errors in the total HBCU support as a percentage of total IHE support that will usually be less than one percent.

Note #1: All of the tables within the body of this report are ordered by the amount of the funds provided to HBCUs. For further reference, the tables in Appendix E provide the same data, but are ordered alphabetically by the names of the participating departments or agencies.

Note #2: The data on which this FY 2008 report is based was collected by the previous Administration. Efforts by the Obama Administration to improve the methodology employed in the classification and analysis of the data contributed to delays in the production of this report. Additional efforts to further improve these methods also delayed the FY 2009 report. As a result, the data tabulated in this report is not directly comparable with the data as it was classified for FY 2007 and in earlier years. Accordingly, neither this report nor the FY 2009 report will discuss changes in funding levels that occurred from year to year.

However, the forthcoming FY 2010 report will apply the final classification schema to the FY 2007, FY 2008, FY 2009, and FY 2010 data and will therefore include valid discussions of changes and trends in year-to-year funding levels.

Part I. Overview of HBCU Funding in Fiscal Year 2008

Table 1 identifies the funds awarded by each of the participating agencies and departments to HBCUs and to all IHEs. As shown in the table, the 31 participating federal agencies and departments provided HBCUs with $3,964,987,750 in FY 2008 – representing 2.9 percent of the total $134,479,808,795 that these departments and agencies awarded to all IHEs.

Of the 31 funding agencies and departments, five (5) contributed more than 10 percent of their IHE support to HBCUs: Homeland Security, HUD, Justice, Social Security, and the National Credit Union Administration. Homeland Security, HUD, and Justice each contributed more than 30 percent.

Table 2 displays the allocation of federal support for HBCUs across six major funding categories that, collectively, accounted for 81.3 percent of the total federal support for HBCUs in FY 2008.

Funding for scholarships and tuition assistance accounted for $2,633,904,026, representing 66.4 percent of all federal support for HBCUs in FY 2008.

*The funds included within the line item for Other Categories accounts for the following: 1) ED allocations for non-Federal Student Financial Assistance, 2) awards that were not categorized by the reporting agencies when submitted to the WHI-HBCU, and 3) additional funding categories reported by participating agencies (e.g., Program Evaluation, Fellowships/Internships, Third Party Awards, Private Sector Involvement, and Administrative Infrastructure).

As displayed in Figure 1, R&D was the second largest funding category at $299,837,616 – representing 44.5 percent of the remaining $674,026,215 in funding not provided by the Department of Education.

Note: Refer to Table 3 and Table 4 for ED funding data

Table 3 provides a separate dataset for the Department of Education’s (ED) funding to IHEs and to HBCUs in FY 2008. The data included within the table is separated from subsequent categorical funding tables (Table 5 - Table 9) because ED reports its funding information across categories that are unique to the Department.

- ED provided $2,587,989,130 in federal student financial assistance to HBCUs in FY 2008, which accounted for nearly 80 percent of the total $3,290,961,535 the Department awarded to HBCUs.
- ED awarded HBCUs $702,927,405 in non-student financial assistance funds to HBCUs, representing 22.5 percent of the non-student financial assistance funds the Department provided to all IHEs.

Although ED provides the largest dollar support to HBCUs, its contributions do not directly correlate with the six major funding categories identified in Table 2 – except for Scholarships and Tuition. Many of the Department’s programs contribute to more than one of the other five categories in ways that are difficult to disaggregate. Accordingly, ED’s contributions will not appear in subsequent categorical funding tables, except for Table 4 which displays the data for student aid.

Table 3 offers a general breakdown of ED’s support to IHEs and to HBCUs by disaggregating awarded funds in FY 2008 in accordance to the Department’s two most basic funding categories: Federal Student Financial Assistance and Non-Federal Student Financial Assistance.

Part II. Allocations of Federal Support to All IHEs and to HBCUs by Major Categories

The tables in this section of the report detail the contributions of each participating department and agency in accordance with the six major funding categories identified in Table 2.

As shown in Table 2, funding for scholarships and tuition assistance was the largest source of federal funds for HBCUs, representing 66.4 percent of the total funds provided to HBCUs in FY 2008.

As shown in Table 4, the Department of Education administered the predominate amount of financial aid to HBCU students in FY 2008, accounting for nearly 99 percent of the total funding for student assistance.

*Accounts for ED's Federal Student Financial Assistance awards

As noted in Part I, R&D funding was the second largest category of federal support for HBCUs in FY 2008, representing 44.5 percent of the support outside of the funds provided by ED.

- Table 5 shows the departments and agencies that provided R&D awards to HBCUs in FY 2008. Of these contributors, six accounted for over 95 percent of the total R&D funds administered to HBCUs: HHS, Agriculture, Defense, NSF, Energy, and NASA.
- The HBCUs' R&D activities contribute to increasing the nation's progress in fields of education, science, technology and engineering, thereby helping to ensure the nation's ability to remain globally competitive, prosperous and secure. These R&D activities also benefit new and existing health and safety initiatives aimed at enhancing the lives of America's citizens.
- Examples of R&D projects include NASA's University Research Project, NSF programs that supported doctoral research degrees in science and engineering, and Commerce's National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) awards.

As depicted in Figure 1, training accounted for 16 percent of the federal support grants outside of funds provided by ED in FY 2008.

- As shown in Table 6, three agencies provided almost 95 percent of the total funds awarded to HBCUs in this category: NSF, HHS, and Veterans Affairs.
- Examples of awards in the training category include the HHS Health Center of Excellence grant to Meharry Medical College for a seven-to-eight year BS/MD program and NSF's Proactive Recruitment in Introductory Science and Mathematics (PRISM) program that supports undergraduate education and research in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) programs for freshmen and sophomores.

APPENDIX A -- Executive Order 13256

Executive Order—White House Initiative on Historically Black Colleges and Universities

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, in order to advance the development of the Nation's full human potential and to advance equal opportunity in higher education, to strengthen the capacity of historically black colleges and universities to provide the highest quality education, and to increase opportunities for these institutions to participate in and benefit from Federal programs, as do other colleges and universities, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1.

There is established, in the Office of the Secretary of Education, a Presidential advisory committee entitled the "President's Board of Advisors on Historically Black Colleges and Universities" (Board). The Board shall prepare and issue an annual report to the President on the results of the participation of historically black colleges and universities in Federal programs. The Board also shall provide advice to the President and to the Secretary of Education (Secretary) regarding the needs of historically black colleges and universities in the areas of infrastructure, academic programs, and faculty and institutional development. In the annual report to the President, the Board shall make recommendations on how to increase the private sector role, including the role of private foundations, in strengthening historically black colleges and universities. Particular emphasis should also be given in the report to enhancing institutional planning and development, strengthening fiscal stability and financial management, and improving institutional infrastructure, including the use of technology, to ensure the long-term viability and enhancement of these institutions.

Section 2.

The Board shall be appointed by the President. The Board membership shall include sitting presidents of historically black colleges and universities, representatives of other higher education institutions, business and financial leaders, representatives of private foundations, and secondary school administrators. The President shall designate a Chair or Co-Chairs from among the members.

Section 3.

The White House Initiative on Historically Black Colleges and Universities (Initiative), located in the Office of the Secretary of Education, shall: (1) provide staff, resources, and assistance to the Board; (2) assist the Secretary in performing the liaison function between the executive branch and historically black colleges and universities; and (3) serve the Secretary in carrying out the responsibilities described in section 6 of this order.

Section 4.

To carry out this order, each executive department and agency identified by the Secretary may, consistent with applicable law and regulations, enter into appropriate grants, contracts, or cooperative agreements with historically black colleges and universities. The head of each department or agency so identified shall establish an annual plan that will establish clear goals for how the department or agency intends to increase the capacity of historically black colleges and universities to compete effectively for grants, contracts, or cooperative agreements and to encourage historically black colleges and universities to participate in Federal programs. The department's or agency's annual goal should be clearly reflected in the department's or agency's annual budget submission to the Office of Management and Budget. To facilitate the attainment of these goals, the head of each department or agency identified by the Secretary shall provide, as appropriate, technical assistance and information to HBCUs regarding the program activities of the department or agency and the preparation of applications or proposals for grants, contracts, or cooperative agreements.

Section 5.

Each executive department and agency identified by the Secretary shall appoint a senior official, who is a full-time officer of the Federal Government, to report directly to the department or agency head with respect to department or agency activity under this order, and to serve as liaison to the Board and to the Initiative. To the extent permitted by law and regulations, each executive department and agency identified by the Secretary shall provide appropriate information requested by the Board and staff pursuant to the order.

Section 6.

Each executive department and agency identified by the Secretary shall develop an annual plan for, and shall document the agency's effort in, increasing the capacity of historically black colleges and universities to participate in Federal programs. Each department's and agency's plan shall describe new or existing department and agency programs and measurable objectives for proposed department and agency actions, in connection with those programs, to achieve the purposes of this order. These plans shall be submitted at such time and in such form as the Secretary shall require. In consultation with the participating departments and agencies, the Secretary shall review the plans and develop, with the advice of the Board, an integrated Annual Federal Plan for Assistance to Historically Black Colleges and Universities for submission to the President. The Secretary shall provide the president of each historically black college and university with a copy of, and an opportunity to comment on, the proposed Annual Federal Plan prior to its submission to the President. Each participating department and agency shall submit to the Secretary an Annual Performance Report that shall measure each department's and agency's performance against the objectives set forth in the department's or agency's annual plan. The Secretary shall be responsible for monitoring compliance with the Annual Federal Plan after it is approved by the President.

Section 7.

In developing its annual plan, each executive department and agency identified by the Secretary shall emphasize programs and activities that develop the capacity of historically black colleges and universities to contribute to the development of human capital and to strengthen America's economic and technological base through: (1) infrastructure development and acquisitions for instruction and research; (2) student and faculty doctoral fellowships and faculty development; (3) domestic and international faculty and student exchanges and study-abroad opportunities; (4) undergraduate and graduate student internships; and (5) summer, part-time, and permanent employment opportunities.

Section 8.

Each year, the Board shall report to the President on the progress achieved in enhancing the capacity of historically black colleges and universities to serve their students, including findings and recommendations for individual departments and agencies in connection with their Annual Performance Reports, as described in section 6 of this order.

Section 9.

The Board, in consultation with the Department of Education and other executive departments and agencies, shall develop a Private Sector Strategy to assist historically black colleges and universities in: (1) increasing voluntary private-sector contributions to support the enhancement of endowments and the overall financial stability of such institutions; (2) improving and enhancing the quality and number of private-sector partnerships focused on academic program development, student achievement and faculty development, cooperative research and development projects, and faculty exchanges; and (3) improving information management, and facilities, and strengthening academic course offerings.

Section 10.

1. The provisions in this Executive Order shall be implemented to the fullest extent permitted by law.
2. The Department of Education shall provide funding and administrative support for the Board and the Initiative.
3. Members of the Board shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by law;
4. Insofar as the Federal Advisory Committee Act, as amended, may apply to the Board, any functions of the President under that Act, except for those in section 6 of that Act, shall be performed by the Department of Education, in accordance with the guidelines that have been issued by the Administrator of General Services.

Section 11.

Executive Order 12876 of November 1, 1993, as amended, is hereby revoked.

GEORGE W. BUSH
