

No Child Left Behind

Summer Reading Achievers

A pilot program to enhance literacy conducted by the U.S. Department of Education in partnership with select school systems, states, corporations and nonprofit organizations.

This summer vacation ...

THE SKY'S THE LIMIT!

Be a Summer Reading Achiever! Join elementary and middle school students in the No Child Left Behind Summer Reading Achievers program. By reading at least 10 books over the summer vacation, you could receive prizes including free books and a Summer Reading Achievers certificate. You'll also find yourself a step ahead in the fall by building the reading skills necessary for success in school and in life.

For more information and the official Summer Reading Achievers brochure, ask your school principal or building librarian. Or call 1-800-USA-LEARN or visit our Web site at www.ed.gov/offices/OIIA/summerreading/.

Summer Reading Achievers sponsors include First Book, Scholastic Inc., National PTA, Target Corporation, USA Football, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, and Communities in Schools, Inc.

"Reading is the one skill upon which all others depend, and making sure that every child in our schools learns to read well is a mission of President Bush and mine."

—Rod Paige
U.S. Secretary of Education

A joint project of the U.S. Department of Education and Atlanta Public Schools, Georgia; Springfield Public Schools, Massachusetts; Portsmouth School Department, New Hampshire; Pittsburgh Public Schools, Pennsylvania; Camden City Public Schools, New Jersey; the School Board of Alachua County, Florida; Kansas City, Kansas Public Schools; Minneapolis Public Schools, Minnesota; Albuquerque Public Schools, New Mexico; San Diego City Schools, California; and the South Dakota Department of Education.

