Janet's Books

Janet is a girl in third grade. She loves to read books everyday. She reads books for her teacher at school. She reads books to her little brother at home. She reads books every night before she goes to bed. She reads newspapers and magazines. She reads a cookbook when she wants to bake cookies. She reads a dictionary when she needs to know how to say or spell a word. She reads the telephone book when she wants to call a friend. Sunday was Janet's birthday. Can you guess what she wanted for her birthday? Yes . . . a new book!
