

From “Students enrolled and receiving Title IV aid” (Eric and Magnus)

A student shall not be eligible for a Federal Pell Grant for an award year during which the student receives grant aid (including but not limited to grants, scholarships, tuition remission) from non-Federal sources, including States, eligible institutions, or private sources, in an amount that equals or exceeds the student’s cost of attendance for the award year