

Suggested text from Thomas Aiello:

I propose adding “no later than 29 days” to section E application process and all three subsections. This would give borrowers one month notice if there may be a change to their employers status as a qualified employers