

Please see the below revised language to be added to protect those sharing an EIN with an employer who is awaiting reinstatement.

"(A) a borrower that is an employee of a qualifying employer in good standing that shares an EIN of another qualifying employer that loses eligibility for failure to meet the conditions of paragraph (b)(27) of this section shall be provided the opportunity to participate in a buy back program for any and all months of missed payments due to the actions of the ineligible employer