

WELCOME TO INTERNATIONAL WEEK

Queen of Angels Catholic School
Roswell, Georgia

Kathryn B. Wood, PhD
Principal

School Facts

- Elementary/Middle School – K-8
- 504 students, 63 Faculty and Staff, 332 families
- Located in Roswell, Georgia, 20 Miles north of Atlanta.
- 27 teachers, 11 paraprofessionals, a media specialist, guidance counselor, nurse, cafeteria staff and custodial staff. The administrative team consists of the Principal, Assistant Principal, Curriculum Coordinator, Business Manager and Development Director.
- ITBS (Iowa Test of Basic Skills) and ACRE (Assessment of Catechesis and Religious Education)
- We share a one hundred acre campus with a high school, a Church and a Retirement Home.

Purpose of International week

- A school wide (K-8), week long, volunteer driven program
- Created 5 years ago to help students embrace the faith and cultures of other countries.
- Provides teachers with academic enrichment for students without adding to teacher workload or draining funds from the school budget.
- We focus on 5 countries (varying each year) that encompass the ethnic diversity of the school community as well as the world.

Flags and Banners

Student Hall Decorations

Student
Participation

Parent Volunteers

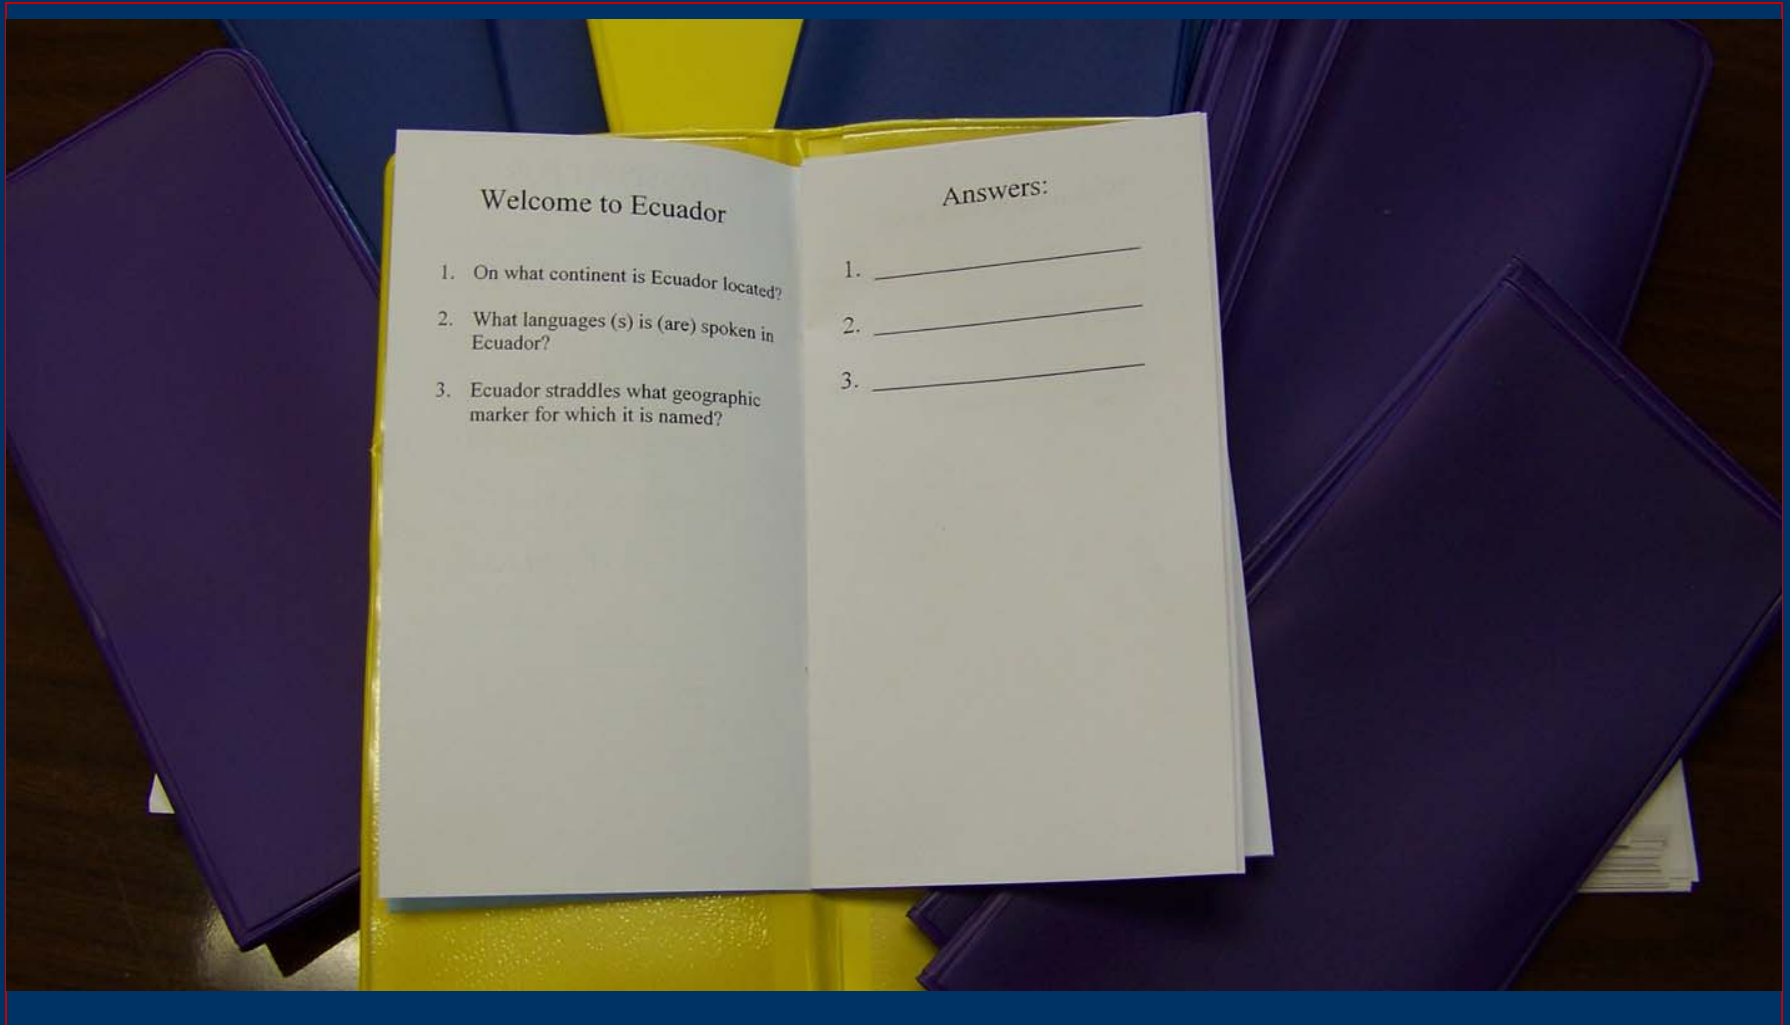

Display Cases in Media Center

Music Appreciation

Passports

Welcome to Ecuador

1. On what continent is Ecuador located?
2. What languages (s) is (are) spoken in Ecuador?
3. Ecuador straddles what geographic marker for which it is named?

Answers:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Summary Points

- School wide cross curricular experience
- Students become literate in the customs and cultures of other countries
- Promotes successful collaboration between the school and parents.
- Parents are recognized for their hard work within the school community and in national organizations.

NCEA Awards Ceremony

