Prospective student
Determine student's location (initial enrollment)
Student is NOT enrolled in distance education or correspondence courses
Licensure requirements are met in the State where the student is located
Licensure requirements are not met or not determined in the State where the student is located
Disclose whether the institution has determined if licensure requirements are met
Institution enrolls student
Change in major or program where new program leads to licensure
Determine the student's location (at time of change) and decide whether they can be enrolled in the new program
Student is enrolled in a distance education or correspondence program
Licensure requirements are met in the State where the student is located or in the State in which the student attests they intend to seek employment
Disclose that the licensure requirements are met
Institution enrolls student
Licensure requirements are not met or not determined in the State where the student is located or the State where the student attests they intend to seek employment
Disclose that the licensure requirements are not met
Cannot enroll students in States where licensure requirements are not met or not determined